

OUR son of a bitch

Franklin D. Roosevelt is reported to have said of the Nicaraguan dictator, Anastasio Somoza,

"He may be a son of a bitch, but he's OUR son of a bitch"

The story is apocryphal, but it tells a truth that persists today. We will support, encourage and sell arms to the worst of humanity as long as it is convenient to do so. Once the relationship sours, however, it's time to back out as quickly and quietly as possible, preferably invading in the wake to claim a righteous victory for democracy and freedom.

To sample the exciting diplomatic thrills of global politics, we bring you this game. All it takes is about 15 minutes, 30 coins, 3 dice, a determination to sell weapons to anyone and the cunning to avoid being caught.
